Product code 22327

The AMARILA pendant light combines futuristic design with a clear, minimalist design language. Its special metal shade makes it a real eye-catcher and gives the room a modern, stylish touch. At the same time, AMARILA emits light gently into the external surroundings, creating a pleasant, atmospheric ambience. Whether arranged individually or in a group - this light is particularly effective above the dining table, the living room table or a kitchen counter. Thanks to the practical hook attachment, it can also be flexibly attached to the ceiling using hooks. The design is rounded off by the black matt metal shade.
