

Pendant lamp Nova Luce The Egg black / white 230V G9 IP20

Product code 22943

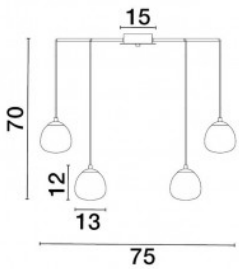

The Egg is a decorative suspension light designed for indoor ceiling mounting. It combines opal glass shades with gold and black metal finishes, creating a sophisticated and modern look. This fixture features nine G9 light sources, providing balanced illumination without included bulbs. Its surface mounting ensures easy installation, while the glossy and matt finishes add subtle texture contrast. Ideal for enhancing contemporary interiors, this light offers a refined aesthetic with durable glass and metal materials.
